Breadcrumb

1. Home
2. Print
3. Pdf
4. Node
5. Entity Print

Farmed Cervid Commodity Import Into the United States: Disease Status Table

Last Modified:

The following is a list of commodities with import status and diseases present in each country. Reorder the table by selecting a column header.

For more information, see APHIS Definitions below.

Loading...

Farmed Cervid Commodities Import Status and Diseases Present

APHIS Definitions

Additional restrictions on the import of this commodity apply. See the APHIS website for additional information.

Bovine: Bos taurus, Bos indicus, and Bison bison (domestic cattle, bison)

Bovid: All members of the family Bovidae, including domestic cattle, bison, water buffalo, yak, and related species

Cervid: All members of the family Cervidae and hybrids, including deer, elk, moose, caribou, reindeer, and related species

Camelid: All species of the family Camelidae, including camels, guanacos, llamas, alpacas, and vicunas

Prohibited: The importation of this commodity is banned by Federal regulations.

Not Currently Allowed: The importation of this commodity is not currently allowed due to other foreign animal diseases of concern in the country of origin, the lack of a negotiated or updated import protocol, or the lack of a negotiated export health certificate from the country of origin. For more information, contact APHIS.

Allowed: The importation of this commodity is permitted.

FMD: Foot-and-mouth disease

CSF: Classical swine fever

ASF: African swine fever

BSE: Bovine spongiform encephalopathy

SVD: Swine vesicular disease

Print